Terms and Conditions:

Thank you for enrolling in an Equinection program. Because we are educators and not therapists, it is important that you are emotionally capable and willing to address personal challenges or conflicts that naturally arise as a result of deepening awareness. At Equinection, you will receive guidance, support, and compassionate teachings. If you are seeking psychological or medical help, our programs are not suited to your goals.

About Fees: Equinection workshops are designed to offer individual attention; our groups are kept small in number to allow for the highest potential for growth and learning. Because of the limited group size, all fees for workshops are non-refundable.

I agree with the above Terms and Conditions _____

We appreciate the trust you place in us to help you come to a fuller understanding of yourself. We pledge to keep our work at the highest standards possible in all that we teach and do. We commit to supporting and encouraging deepening your self-awareness.
